MAKING MUSIC:
Schoolchildren from across Stoke-on-Trent are taking part in the latest series of concerts. Organised by the City Music Service, the woodwind and brass extravaganza took place at the Victoria Hall in Hanley last night, with tonight seeing the string extravaganza perform. Tuition sessions for woodwind players and string instruments have also been on offer for the pupils. Harry Hitchen, leader of the City Music Service, said: "Rehearsals have been running very smoothly, and the children have enjoyed getting involved." To book tickets for tonight's show, call the box office on 08448 717649. Left are Isabelle Foxall, aged nine, and Ronaldo Nones, eight, from St Augustine's Catholic Academy in Meir. Please be aware that Staff vehicles, deliveries vans and refuse collectors all access the yard prior to 8.40am.

A BIG THANKYOU TO OUR FANTASTIC PTFA who arranged the Summer Fayre last Saturday. A fantastic day was had by all. Thank you for supporting. Over £1000 was taken on the day. Thank you.
